

Boxing Tourney to help The Ryan Foundation

The Carrollton Police Athletic League is hosting the second annual Boxing Extravaganza to benefit the Ryan Foundation at 1 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 26 and 27. The event will be held at the Crosby Road Recreation Center at 1610 East Crosby Road in Carrollton.

The Ryan Foundation is a non-profit organization for the benefit of Ryan Dant and all other children with MPS, a rare and fatal genetic disease. Ryan is the 4-year-old son of Carrollton Police Lieutenant Mark Dant. All funds will go to the MPS society in behalf of the Dant family and friends for research for a cure to this deadly disease.

The event is sponsored by Carrollton Parks and Recreation, the Police Union, and the Police Reserves.

For ticket information call Sonny Ozuna at 466-3311, or Rick Luna at 466-3256.
